

The Irregular Verb “Ir”, to go

Irregular verbs don't follow the normal patterns so you'll need to memorize them.

Yo voy	Nosotros vamos
Tú vas	Vosotros vais
Él / Ella Usted va	Ellos / Ellas Ustedes van

Saying “To Know”

There are two verbs for “to know” in Spanish. One means to know something, and the other means to know somebody or someplace. They both have irregular yo forms.

TO KNOW SOMETHING - SABER
Yo ★ sé	Nosotros sabemos
Tú sabes	Vosotros sabéis
Él / Ella Usted sabe	Ellos / Ellas Ustedes saben

TO KNOW A PLACE OR PERSON - CONOCER
Yo ★ conozco	Nosotros conocemos
Tú conoces	Vosotros conocéis
Él / Ella Usted conoce	Ellos / Ellas Ustedes conocen

When using Conocer with a person, you should place an “a” before their name. For example;

1. I know Theresa = Conozco a Teresa.
2. She knows my sister = Conoce a mi hermana.
